TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Ray Tollett of Nashville has filed a petition with the clerk of U.S. District Court seeking to recover from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover what are identified as tape recordings involving Little Rock policemen.

Tollett, formerly of Little Rock, testified in Circuit Court at Little Rock last July 16 that he had made wiretapping devices for Little Rock police.

He said at the time that the devices were used to gather evidence for narcotics arrests made by officers earlier in the year. Policemen did not testify. Police Chief Gale F. Weeks of Little Rock said in an interview at that time the Little Rock Police Department did not use wiretapping devices.

Tollett's petition says the tapes were presented to the FBI office in Little Rock last Feb. 14 to support a voluntary, sworn statement by Tollett that Little Rock police were using illegal wiretaps and stolen tape recorders to record conversations from the wiretaps.

During cross-examination last July, Tollett said he had been convicted of a felony and that he had been in a mental institution in Missouri for observation.

The federal court petition lists six different tape recordings and asks that Hoover be directed to return the tapes to Tollett for his use as evidence in a civil suit he plans to file.

Tollett said in an interview Thursday that he plans to file a civil suit to recover property and assess damages over the alleged theft of about $1,000 in electronic equipment from his car.

The petition said that Tollett spent 12 days assisting the FBI in transcribing the tapes and that the FBI sent the tapes to the FBI Laboratory in Washington for evaluation.

According to the petition, the FBI laboratory report said that examination of the tapes showed that they had not been edited, spliced or altered in any manner. The petition requests a copy of that report.

The petition says the tape recordings included:

—A tape recording between Tollett and a Little Rock police sergeant who stated in the recording that a telephone tap led to the arrest of 32 people, including nine charged with narcotic violations, and that another telephone tap led to the arrest of a young man with 250 LSD tablets.

—A copy of a telephone conversation made by the sergeant to the residence where the arrests took place.

—A tape recording of a conversation between Tollett, the sergeant and a Little Rock detective in which the sergeant asks Tollett to tap a pay telephone.

—A tape recording of a conversation between Tollett and the sergeant in which an agent of the Bureau of Narcotics is said by the sergeant to have a tape recorder belonging to Tollett.

—A tape recording of a conversation between Tollett and another man who claims to know the whereabouts of equipment stolen from Tollett but warns Tollett not to involve him in the matter.

—A tape recording between Tollett and a Pulaski County sheriff's officer in which the officer purportedly offers to recover equipment stolen if Tollett will pay $100 to the officer.

roll employment was down nearly half a million to 70.6 million and manufacturing employment dropped more than 600,000 to 18.8 million.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics also said in another report that wholesale prices did not drop last month as indicated in a preliminary report. The wholesale price index remained unchanged, rather than the earlier indicated one-tenth of one per cent drop, the bureau said.

The bureau said that the total number of unemployed had risen 1.4 million in the past year, most of them formerly full time workers. Democrats had campaigned heavily against President Nixon's economic record.

The bureau also reported that average earnings of some 45 million rank and file workers remained unchanged at $3.28 per hour, but weekly earnings dropped 33 cents to $121.03 because of a small drop in the average work week.

Waldo Doctor Denies Illegal Drug Charge

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP)—Dr. J. Bryon Grimmer Jr., 41, of Waldo, denied charges of illegal possession and sale of drugs during a trial here Thursday in Circuit Court.

The trial was continuing today.

Grimmett and his nurse, Mrs. Patricia Kimbell, 34, were arrested during a raid on Grimmer's clinic last Jan. 27, in which $600,000 in drugs was seized. Both have been charged with violating the Uniform Drug Act, but Mrs. Kimbell has not yet come to trial.

In testimony Thursday, Grimmer said that he had examined Sgt. Duke Atkinson of the State Police and had prescribed drugs for an overweight condition.

Atkinson said he had not seen Grimmer until the night of the raid, but said he had obtained drugs from the clinic on three different occasions.

The majority of the testimony was centered around the alleged failure of Grimmer to keep proper records and storage for amphetamines and barbiturates in violation of the Uniform Drug Abuse Act.

The state Medical Board suspended Grimmer's license on the basis of allegations that he aided and abetted an unlicensed person to practice medicine, failed to maintain adequate records of drugs, failed to store drugs as required by law and made immoral advances toward three patients.

Sixteen persons testified Thursday including several members of the State Police, the manager of a drug company and three former patients.

Voters Show No Regard for Seniority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Voters showed little regard this year for the seniority system so well-loved in Congress.

The system protects the promotion privileges of members with long records of service. The longer they stay in Congress, the better their chances to win higher and more important assignments and become more strongly entrenched in office.

Voters decided that for 15 senior House members with combined service of more than 250 years, the time had come to look for other jobs.

The 15 were defeated in primaries or in last Tuesday's general election.

The political casualties included two committee chairmen, one former chairman and four who were in line to become chairmen if political winds blew the right way.

Ten were victims of primary elections. Five lost out in the general elections.

These chairmen and a former chairman were among the casualties:

George H. Fallon, 68, D-Md., who headed the Public Works Committee and whose service as a member started in 1945.

Samuel N. Friedel, 72, D-Md., who first was elected in November 1952. He chairs the House Administration Committee and is No. 2 Democrat on the Commerce Committee.

Adam Clayton Powell, 62, D-N.Y., whose service started in 1945. He headed the Education and Labor Committee until stripped of the post by Democrats four years ago in a disciplinary move.

RESEARCHERS (from Page one)

County-University of Southern California research team that discovered the new disease—necrotizing angitis.

Citron wrote a research report on it that appeared this week in the New England Journal of Medicine.

"Our concern in the past with drug abuse has been educational—to prevent drug use—and then acute care—treating the hard-core addict or the overdose," he said. "But now, we are going to be flooded with a group of patients, mostly young people, who are going to require long-term therapy."

"And it's all going to require more money."

In the medical journal report, the doctors told of 14 young drug users with the disease, four of whom died.

In later research not reported in the medical journal, they found the disease among 30 young people in a group of 50 drug users. They said they expect from 10 to 30 per cent of this group to die.

The study found that use of heroin alone or barbiturates alone did not produce the disease. It appeared only with heavy use of methamphetamine alone or in combination with other drugs such as LSD and heroin.

The disease resembles another arterial ailment, periarteritis nodosa, known for over a hundred years, which occurs mainly in late and middle age and is usually fatal.

"In drug abuse patients we see they have identical lesions—changes in arteries—on autopsy that periarteritis nodosa causes," Citron said. "But instead of 40-and 50-year-olds, we're dealing with teen-agers and 20-year-olds."

Drainage Fuss May Be Settled in Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Andrew Hulsey, director of the state Game and Fish Commission, said Thursday night that the commission's differences with the Salt Bayou Drainage District may be resolved in court.

The district is asking that the commission pay taxes on maintenance of a drainage ditch that runs through Bayou Meto. Previously, the commission has paid the taxes of $2,000 a year, but the agency has refused to pay since the district levied the assessment of about $11,000 a year for 30 years on the land about two years ago.

Hulsey told about 100 persons at a meeting of the Pulaski County Chapter of the Arkansas Wildlife Federation that Bayou Meto had been damaged by the manner in which the drainage ditch had been maintained.

The commission owns portions of Bayou Meto. Hulsey also denied reports that the commission's land holdings in Bayou Meto would be sold. "We're in the land-buying business," he said.

The drainage ditch, which was widened recently, brought about several changes which the commission disapproved of, Hulsey said.

He said that where the ditch empties into the Little Bayou Meto a logjam has been created making entrance into the Little Bayou Meto impossible for hunters. He also said that dirt on spoil bank of the ditch has been piled so high that no water can run off into the government-owned Cypress Tree area and duck hunting reserves. Also, he said, a buildup of silt deposits may destroy some wildlife in the Bayou Meto area.

A representative of the Arkansas Duck Hunters Association said that the ditch had definitely damaged the area and claimed he had 150 witnesses to back up his charge.

"When (the commission) purchased the land we agreed we would honor assessment of taxes on the land at that time," Hulsey said. "We also agreed that the ditch would be maintained for the purpose it was created for, but they (Salt Bayou Drainage District) assessed the commission taxes, saying they are protecting the land from flooding."

He said the commission made the purchase about 50 years ago.

"If there are pluses and there are minuses, then we have reason to be concerned about using our money to pay taxes on a minus cause," said Gus Albright, president of the Pulaski County Chapter of the Wildlife Federation.

Slide films of Bayou Meto were shown, including pictures of the alleged logjam and drainage problems.

The Bayou Meto grounds are in Jefferson and Arkansas counties north of the Arkansas River.

Explosion Wrecks Temple in Rochester

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — A dynamite explosion early today blew two holes in the rear of Temple Beth Am in suburban Henrietta. No injuries were reported.

It was the third synagogue bombing in the area within 10 days. Two were damaged in Rochester Oct. 27 in explosions. Six other buildings in the city were bombed Oct. 12.

"Considerably more than two sticks of dynamite were used here," Sheriff's Detective Donald Wall said of Temple Beth Am.

Police said devices they described as "fuse bombs" had been placed in the corner of a one-story cinder-block structure forming the rear of the synagogue and housing offices and a kitchen.

Police said they were looking for a red Oldsmobile station wagon which was reported near the temple shortly after the explosion at 1 a.m.

Post, Rockwell Trying for a Comeback

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Saturday Evening Post is being resurrected with a nostalgic old Norman Rockwell illustration on its first cover—though the 76-year-old artist says his rosy-cheeked little girls and spotted mongrel dogs no longer typify America.
Curtis Publishing Co. announced Thursday the magazine would be back on the newsstands as a quarterly next spring.
Beurt Servaas, Curtis president, said the new Post, like its predecessor, would be aimed at Middle America, which used to date on Rockwell's covers.
The artist himself told an interviewer Thursday his folksy, annual drawings are out of date. Recently he has been illustrating racial themes and the war on poverty.
"I was able in the past to reflect the country's mood in my work," Rockwell said. "But now questions are so bitter and nothing is clear cut."
"Today paintings about the racial question, about drugs and Vietnam are in demand. There are no easy answers to these questions."
"I would like to illustrate the generation gap, but I haven't worked out how to do it yet."
What happened to the America Rockwell used to portray?
"I'm no philosopher but I guess we swept everything—racial problems, drug use and the generation gap—under the rug for years," he said.
About 500,000 copies of the new Post will be printed. When publication stopped 22 months ago due to lack of advertising, it had three million subscribers, less than half its circulation high.
The Post traces its origin to 1728 and Benjamin Franklin. Cyrus H. K. Curtis bought it for $1,000 in 1897 and built it into one of the nation's most successful magazines.

WHY IS A "HOOSIER?"

Dear Helen:
Can you tell a lot of us who live in Indiana how we came to be called "Hoosiers?"
No one seems to know, but a lot of out-of-staters keep calling us "dirty Hoosiers" before they go back across the river.
One other question. How did "G-string" get its name? I mean as in burlesque queen. —HOOSIER QUESTIONER
Dear H.Q.:
I quote from the Encyclopedia Britannica: "The origin of the name Hoosier is uncertain, but it was used as early as 1833. One of the most widely accepted versions is that a pioneer, greeting a newcomer, would ask, 'Who's Yer?' or 'Who's Yere?' (meaning

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — If any one thing in television provides rating insurance, it is a wedding. From time to time series languishing in the nether regions of the Nielsen roster have suddenly shot to the top 10 on the strength of a prepublicized wedding ceremony.

Thus this week's "Nancy" on NBC should gain some rating yardage. It is essentially a woman's show anyway, and on Thursday night the daughter of the president of the United States and her Iowa veterinarian marched down the aisle. Since the series is less than two months old, this was part of the master plan.

The program, however, stuck to an old pattern, describing the prenuptial nerves of bride and groom, accompanied by an enthusiastic laugh track.

"Coogan's Bluff," a two-year-old movie that inspired the recent six-part series, "McCloud," on television, will be broadcast on NBC Monday night, Nov. 23. Clint Eastwood plays a deputy sheriff from Arizona in New York to bring back a convicted murderer.

TV viewers who saw the film at theaters may be surprised, even disappointed, when they see the TV edition. The original contained a lot of violence and was pretty explicit about sex.

Hermilio Traviesas, who rides shotgun for the network in the area of taste, said that when the studio producing "Coogan's Bluff" offered it to the network, it was rejected as unsuitable.

"They took it back and worked over it," Traviesas said. "They eliminated some objectionable scenes, including one showing some topless performers, and they cut out some of the violence. All it should be added, without doing anything to slow up the story."

The TV version will be about as long as the original. The studio restored some footage originally dropped to the cutting room floor.

The word now is that Andy Griffith will be the sole survivor of his CBS series when it is re-constituted after midyear. It is expected that he will be presented as the mayor of a small town near Mayberry, N.C.—the "Mayberry, R.F.D." cast will appear in the first episode. He will also acquire a wife, Lee Merriweather, a son, a daughter and a spinster sister.
And Jerry Van Dyke, his co-star of "Headmaster," will return to the nightclub and await discovery by TV—again.

Dear Helen:
In reply to the woman whose husband had left her and she wanted to give her baby away—don't!! I had the same problem, and the same thoughts. My son was two when I was deserted, with a baby on the way. But when she arrived, I couldn't give her up.

Now after 17 years, I'm so very glad I didn't. My children are a joy—they kept me alive and happy, and they've turned out fine. I never re-married, and we've all worked hard, but we've had time to play too. It wouldn't have been half the fun, with only one. —P.J.N.

Studies Cuts of Meat

Glen Gilbert of Barry's Grocery and Market points out the retail cuts in a hind quarter of beef to Jessie Porter, Joyce Standokes, Alma Davis, Kay Boatman, Janice Whitaker, Mary Sue House, and Sharon McCoy.

Men Assigned to Teaching Kindergarten

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — Four young men have been assigned to teaching kindergarten here with a view to providing the 5-year-olds with a male image in their first learning experience.

School district officials say they believe it is the first masculine invasion on other than a trial basis of a field traditionally monopolized by women.
So far the reaction from administrators, children, parents and the four teachers has been favorable.

The program's two objectives are to provide a male image for children, an image lacking in many homes, and, in one of the classes, to give boys a chance to catch up to the faster maturing girls.

All four men went into the classroom with enthusiasm, but with some trepidation.

"At first I didn't quite know how to handle crying kids or those who wet their pants," said Larry Kapchinsky, 23. "But both the children and I are adjusting. The kids don't know kindergarten teachers are supposed to be women."

Herman Neuman, a teacher for nine years with four children of his own, has a class of 28—all boys.

Five-year-old boys, he said, "tend to be either shy or rowdy rather than compete" with girls of their own age. To enable them to hold their own with girls at similar maturity levels, the separate class was organized.

"I try to do things with them

Knowing the retail cuts of meat and how to identify them is a very important part of the study of meats in the Homemaking II classes at Hope High School. The average family spends 1/4 or more of its food budget on meat. With meat prices at an all time high it is even more important that we as consumers use all the information available to enable us to be sure we get our money's worth. As an introduction to the Buying, Storing, and Preparation of Meat Unit, the students from Mrs. Helen Clark's Homemaking classes were bussed to Barry's Grocery and Market. The meat market staff explained to the girls how the carcasses are stored in the lockers; called attention to the meat inspection stamp and explained its purpose; cut up a hind quarter of beef and told the retail name and explained the use of each cut; and identified each cut of meat in the meat counters. Special attention was called to the cheaper cuts of meat and their uses.

Immanuel Church Plans Revival

Immanuel Baptist Church, 505 Division St., will hold a revival meeting starting Nov. 9 and it will continue through Saturday, Nov. 14. Mike Ford, missionary from Australia will be the evangelist. A Bible conference will be Saturday at 10 a.m. and lunch will be served. The public is invited.

that a father might do," Neuman said. "Like playing with them on the playground."

All four men believe the first formative years are most important in children's education.

In the recent New York-New Jersey regional, practically every South player wound up at a four-spade contract after a club opening by North and some sort of diamond overcall by East.

It is rather easy for West to beat the contract with a heart opening and a heart continuation after East wins the first trump and plays back a diamond.

The most normal defense was for West to play ace and another diamond, with East shifting to a heart at trick three. In that case, South could make his contract, provided he took the right view in trumps.

Paul Heitner and Harry Stappenbeck, who won the open pairs, found a way to beat the contract after a diamond lead and diamond continuation by Harry.

Paul looked over dummy very carefully and decided to play a third diamond just to see if repeated diamond leads might not spoil declarer's plan of campaign.

South didn't like this third diamond lead at all. He had to ruff in his own hand to preserve both of dummy's trumps and he made his best play, which was to ruff with the eight.

This gave Harry a chance to do his bit for the defense. He discarded a heart. South proceeded to lead the 10 of spades and it was up to Harry to make another correct play. He did, by covering with the queen.

Paul's ace topped dummy's king and Paul led a fourth diamond. Poor South could not afford to ruff with the jack. That would establish the nine as the top trump. Instead, he ruffed low, whereupon Harry was able to score his seven of trumps as the setting trick.

What do you do now?
A—Bid four spades. Your partner has shown a very strong spade raise and your overall was quite sound.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding two spades, your partner has jumped to three spades over your two-diamond bid. What do you do now?

Ruth's Victim of Gopher Ball Dies at 71

HOLLISTER, Calif. (AP) — Charlie Root won more than 200 games as a major league pitcher but he'll always be remembered for a gopher ball that Babe Ruth turned into a baseball legend.

Root, who died here Thursday at 71, was the victim of Ruth's "called-shot" homer in the 1932 World Series.

In his retirement years as a cattle rancher and antique shop operator, the former Chicago Cubs right-hander often remarked he was tired of being the "goat" of the story, which seemed to take on new embellishments with each retelling.

Funeral and burial services are scheduled Saturday for the silver-haired Root, who succumbed in a hospital after a long illness. He lived in nearby Paicines.

The incident that dogged Root for the rest of his life took place on a chilly October day in Chicago during the third game of the 1932 Series between the New York Yankees and the Cubs.

Ruth, who already had hit a three-run homer off Root, came to bat in the fifth inning with the score tied 4-4. Root got two quick called strikes.

Then, according to the story, Ruth raised his hand and pointed towards centerfield. Another version has him pointing with his bat.

In either case, it was interpreted by the howling crowd as meaning that he was going to hit the next pitch over the fence—and that is exactly what he did.

The Yankees won the game 7-5 and went on to win the series in four straight.

Root contended that all Ruth did was hold up one finger to indicate he still had one strike left.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Today the 40-hour work week is an accepted standard for workers in the United States. The World Almanac notes that the animal-loving Costa Ricans in Central America have made laws restricting horses, mules and oxen to no more than 48 hours work per week.

had still another version. He recalled that pitcher Gay Bush was heckling from the dugout when Ruth pointed at the mound and called, "You'll be out there tomorrow and we'll see what you can do."

Sure enough, Bush started the next game and lasted one-third of an inning.

Most serious students of the game agree with Root's version, but that was the last home run Ruth hit in a World Series, and the legend could never be buried.

Born in Middletown, Ohio, March 17, 1899, Root broke into baseball with Terre Haute in 1921, went to the St. Louis Browns in 1923, and joined the Cubs in 1926 after two years with Los Angeles.

He pitched 16 years for the Cubs and had a career record of 201-160. He participated in World Series in 1929, 1932, 1935 and 1938, but his record was no wins and three losses.

Root's affinity for adversity first showed up in the 1929 series, which the Philadelphia Athletics won in five games.

Root was breezing along in the fourth game with an 8-0 lead in the seventh inning when Hack Wilson lost two fly balls in the sun. The Athletics scored 10 runs in the inning for a 10-8 victory.

After the 1941 season, Root retired to his 1,32

By G. C. THELEN Jr.
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Teacher Corps Director Richard A. Graham has a problem.
The energetic, bushy-haired former engineer-inventor-businessman runs a federal program launched five years ago to fill a vast teacher shortage.
But since then colleges have turned out large numbers of teachers and the shortage no longer exists.
Graham must now promote and justify the Teacher Corps as an engine for educational reform.
"The purpose of a Teacher Corps project," said the Republican veteran of the Kennedy-Johnson days, "is to try out and adopt—to accelerate the adoption of educational reforms which have shown promise elsewhere."
The corps traditionally recruits young people—most of them college graduates without previous teacher training—for two year intern assignments in poverty-area schools.
There are 2,800 corpsmen serving in 140 school districts throughout 40 states.
The teacher-interns instruct classes, provide individual tutoring, organize parents, hold special after-school and week-end programs, and study for a bachelor's or master's degree in education at local universities. The pay is $75 a week.
The Teacher Corps started as one of President Johnson's most controversial Great Society programs.
Congressional promoters of the Teacher Corps once visualized the program training upwards of 35,000 teacher-interns each year on a $100 million budget. The corps' budget has only now reached $31 million.
Nevertheless, Graham believes the corps can bolster education for poor children by reforming teacher training.
The 87 universities training corpsmen will be required to adopt by 1971 so-called competency-based teacher education.

Teacher Corps Has Problem--No Shortage

TIME CATCHES UP as a masterpiece of the past becomes a mod abstraction. Micajah Burnett's twin-spiral stairway in this photo takes on appearance of an exercise of imagination of modern painter. It can be found in the trustees' office, one of the buildings in restored Shaker village at Pleasant Hill, Ky. The religious sect, now renowned for its woodworking, believed in common ownership of property and their village thrived from 1805 until 1910.

...the world is full of them. National symbols, political symbols, religious symbols for most every type, race, creed, organization or business. It's getting so that we automatically judge a person by the symbol he wears. "See that man with the Star of David? He's a Jew. The one with the Cross is a Christian. Look at that guy wearing flowers, ...he's a hippie. Those with clinched fists are black power advocates. Donkeys are for Democrats, elephants for Republicans." Everyone knows that. Yes, but what if the symbols were to disappear? Ah, there's the rub. Then, just how could we know what a person really is? Even more important, would we know?

Check your life today...right now. Are you depending on symbols to identify you, to get you through? Do your actions read well? For sake of the record, just what manner of man are you? In the final analysis, only your actions, your life will tell. Attend church this week. It'll make a big difference.

Bobcats Go to Nashville Friday Night

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Tonight, the Hope Bobcats travel to Nashville to do battle with the Scrappers in the last game of the year, in which both teams would like to win and better their season record.

Hope's seniors would especially like to win this one to leave the school with winning ways. A victory would give the seniors a two year mark of 18-5 with a championship year and an overall three year mark of 22-12-1 for their Senior High Career.

Nashville will be out to revenge last years belting while the Bobcats will be out to revenge last weeks narrow loss to Camden, so it should be a real fine ball game with a lot of action.

Powder Puff Game Is Saturday

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Powder Puff Football is almost here and the players, coaches, majorettes, and cheerleaders have been practicing hard for the event sponsored by the Hope High School Student Council.

The seniors run their offensive formation from the Texas Wishbone and the juniors use a modified "Pro" formation.

Led by quarterback Rita Taylor, the seniors boasts such fine runners as Sharon Bain at one halfback, along with Janice Whitaker and Sharon Brown.

Junior quarterback Betty Rodden leads the juniors awesome attack with Karen Davis, Terry Jones, and Sandy Flowers completing the backfield. Cindy Hollis and Gladice Spellman also give the juniors a passing attack which should help tremendously.

Both teams think they have good size and speed and with good blocking, which will be needed, could win handily.

Junior coaches believe they have the best balanced, all-round

Liberalized Deer Season Opens Nov. 9

By JAY KAFFKA

LITTLE ROCK—Deer hunting will be more liberalized across the state during the first gun hunt that opens Nov. 9 and runs through Nov. 14. Major changes in the regulations include the taking of only legal bucks in all of the open zones. This includes Zone 21, which was open last year to the taking of any deer.

As for areas on the closed list for deer hunting, this takes in all state parks, the Arkansas Post National Monument, and those zones designated as Zone 23, Brandywine Island Wildlife Management Area, and the Camp Robinson Quail Restoration Area. These areas are closed to all types of hunting. Commission-owned wildlife management areas closed to deer hunting include Bayou DeView, Howard County, Hurricane Lake, Wattensaw, Pike County, and Lafayette County. These areas were open for a brief permit deer hunt earlier, but closed to all deer hunting for the remainder of 1970. A large number of management areas will be closed after the first deer period, and this information will be published prior to the Thanksgiving three-day hunt.

All of the state permit hunts have been concluded, and except for two special permit hunts on the White River National Refuge no other permit hunts will be held. Therefore, during the first November period no does may be taken.

Dogs may not be used to take deer in Zones 9, 10, and 12. Many management areas are closed to the use of dogs to take deer. A complete list of wildlife management areas and the rules for the various hunts are outlined on the 1970-71 hunting regulations that are available from the Game and Fish Commission in Little Rock.

As for the regular deer hunting regulations, hunters cannot establish a camp more than 48 hours before the opening of the hunt and must break camp 24 hours after hunts close. All deer taken must be tagged and reported to the various check stations. Hunters under 16 years of age, as well as holders of lifetime hunting licenses, can obtain deer tags from any check station.

Legal bucks are defined as any deer with antlers at least four inches long or one with forked antlers. Deer with antlers smaller or without antlers are not legal targets.

Among the new changes are that 410 gauge shotguns can now be used to take deer, but only with the use of slugs. Buckshot cannot be used with 410's. All rifles using rim-fire cartridges are prohibited for deer hunting, and all full-metal case or military ammunition is banned.

Once a hunter has taken one deer during the first period he cannot legally continue to hunt deer, as only one deer per period may be taken by an individual hunter.

During the first firearms deer hunt, archers may take legal bucks only. After Nov. 14 and up until the next hunt opens—Nov. 26—archers may once again take any deer.

Other statewide deer hunts scheduled for 1970 will be the three-day hunt opening on Nov. 26. Except for the regular closed areas and management areas, the entire state will again be open to the taking of any deer. However, the entire state will be closed to the use of dogs during the three-day deer hunt.

The final hunt will open Dec. 14 and continue through Dec. 19, with legal bucks only in the open areas. Except for Zone 23, all zones will be open.

Residents may take deer on the regular $3.50 license, which includes two deer tags. Non-residents 16 and older must purchase a basic hunting license and the deer tags cost an extra $10 each. Non-residents under 16 may hunt deer without a license, but upon bagging a deer must secure a license and tag the same as those 16 and older.

Sunny, Warm for Game Saturday

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sunny skies and warm temperatures are forecast for the football game at Fayetteville Saturday between Arkansas and Rice. Gametime temperatures are expected to be in the low 70s with southwesterly winds at eight to 16 miles an hour.

Picks the Pro Pass, Punt Champion Favorites This Weekend

By MIKE RATHET

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Football League's week-end program includes nine games which will have a bearing on first place—and that makes it a critical schedule.

First place, however, is something this pro picker would have trouble locating. Last week's picks turned up a 7-5-1 record for 15-9-2 over-all—and the jitters with so many critical games scheduled.

The key ones are Minnesota at Washington, Dallas at New York Giants, Cleveland at Oakland, Denver at San Diego, San Francisco at Chicago, Atlanta at Los Angeles, Detroit at New Orleans, Boston at St. Louis and Houston at Kansas City.

Here, theoretically, is how it will all turn out (Sunday games unless otherwise noted):

Minnesota 31, Washington 21—Vikings lead NFC Central and have allowed only 56 points in seven games. Redskins' defense improving, but Vikings playing as if they're invincible with Gary Cuzzo taking firm hold at quarterback.

Dallas 27, New York Giants 24—Giants, one back of Cowboys and Cardinals, suffer let-down after emotional victory over crosstown rival Jets. And the Cowboys won't pick any fights. What'll Fran Tarkenton, the Giants' quarterback, think of now?

Oakland 28, Cleveland 21—Speaking of fights, the Raiders will get one from the Browns, but rookie tight end Ray Chester gives Daryle Lamonica too many weapons. Besides, Browns may be without Leroy Kelly. Raiders lead AFC West, Browns AFC Central.

San Francisco 38, Chicago 10—NFC Western leading 49ers take to the road and maul Bears behind quarterback John Brodie, having a great season. Chicago hanging in there without Gale Sayers but Cecil Turner can't return a kickoff for a TD every game.

San Diego 21, Denver 20—The Chargers, with Dick Post back in the line-up, now have the running strength to upend the Broncos, who have been slipping and trail Oakland by .029 percentage points in AFC West.

Los Angeles 35, Atlanta 24—Rams have to keep winning to keep up with 49ers in NFC West, but may find the Falcons tougher than expected. Falcon quarterback Bob Berry will have to be careful against a front four that leads the NFC in dumping the passer.

Detroit 31, New Orleans 14—The Lions, now trailing Vikings by full game in NFC Central, could have letdown after tough battle with Minnesota, but Saints are a good team to let down against. J. D. Roberts makes his debut as head coach for New Orleans.

St. Louis 42, Boston 7—Cardinals tied with Cowboys in NFC East and Patriots are going through another upheaval with Coach Clive Rush replaced by John Mazur. St. Louis sent Coach Walley Lemm reeling in 44-0 victory over Houston last week.

Kansas City 28, Houston 13—Chiefs haven't exactly been a ball of fire this season, but Ed Podolak seems to give the running game more steam every week. Super Bowl Chiefs 3-1 and can't afford another defeat.

Miami 17, Philadelphia 14—This may be the Eagles' best shot to win one this season, but here's a guess the Dolphins will bounce back after two successive shutouts.

New York Jets 24, Pittsburgh 20—Al Woodall coming on as Jets' quarterback. Pitt gladiator Terry Bradshaw barking at club now. That doesn't help.

Buffalo 28, Cincinnati 21—O.J. Simpson coming off his best ground gaining performance for Bills while Bengals, weakened by injuries, having trouble scoring.

Baltimore 31, Green Bay 28 (Monday)—A tussle for the

ARTIS PERRY

Artis Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Artis Perry of Rt. 4, Hope, recently won the District Punt, Pass and Kick contest in Memphis and will go to New Orleans Saturday, Nov. 7 to compete in the Area PP&K contest.

Artis won the 13 year old class local and zone contest in Hope and received three trophies. He and his parents will have an all-expense paid trip to New Orleans, courtesy of Hope Auto Company and Ford Motor Company, sponsors of the PP&K contests. Andy Caldwell, Sales Manager of Hope Auto, will also go to New Orleans.

If Artis wins the contest in New Orleans, he will go to Los Angeles in December for the Division competition.

Texas, Irish Should Have No Trouble

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Our game plan is to hang on. With that, Baylor Coach Bill Beall sends his game-but-out-gunned Bears against the No. 1 college football team in the country Saturday at Waco, Tex.

The Texas Longhorns are the leading ground team in the nation and own the land's longest winning streak of 26. Only other longer major college football strings are by Michigan State (28) in the early 1950s and Oklahoma-streaks of 31 and 47.

Beall says Baylor must eliminate mistakes to keep from being blown out of the stadium by powerful Texas, which holds a 44-11 series record, including the last 12 in a row.

Everything also looks bright this weekend for Notre Dame and Ohio State, the nation's second- and third-ranked teams, and, of course, No. 6 Stanford.

Notre Dame is expected to have little trouble with visiting Pittsburgh. Ohio State has the toughest test of the top three and the Buckeyes are a two-touchdown choice over Wisconsin at Madison.

Stanford, however, could have a thorny day in a regionally televised game against visiting Washington, but the Indians can step into the Rose Bowl with a victory, and that should provide quite an incentive.

Texas, Notre Dame and Ohio State have been battling all season for that No. 1 ranking, and the Longhorns and Irish also seem to be moving toward another Cotton Bowl meeting.

Notre Dame is supposed to have a tacit agreement to go to the Orange Bowl this year but another shot at Texas could make Coach Ara Parseghian prefer Dallas to Miami on New Colts, but they're protecting first place in AFC East and riding five-game winning streak. Don Horn may be at quarterback for Packers.

Thinks Hogs Will Defeat Rice 28 to 7

By HARRY KING

Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Rice's record is deceiving.

The Owls, who meet seventh-ranked Arkansas Saturday at Fayetteville, opened the season with a 42-0 victory over VMI and are 1-4 since. However, the combined record of those five teams is 23-11.

Rice has lost to LSU, Texas, SMU and Texas Tech. The Owls, third in the Southwest Conference in defense, permitted high-scoring SMU only one touchdown and did not allow Tech a TD.

The Razorbacks, who have won six straight, have been established four touchdown favorites by the oddsmakers.

Arkansas, of course, will be without the services of tailback Bill Burnett who scored 50 touchdowns during his career as a Razorback. He suffered a shoulder separation in last week's 45-6 rout of Texas A&M and is probably out for the season.

With Burnett injured, the tailback burden falls on Jon Richardson, the exciting sophomore from Little Rock. Richardson, who has logged considerable playing time this year, has averaged 5.2 yards a carry while gaining 224 yards.

Arkansas' first team has barely worked up a sweat the past few Saturdays, but Rice's defense may make it a long afternoon for the Razorbacks' offense.

However, the Razorbacks lead the conference in defense against scoring and the Owls have had trouble scoring.

Arkansas is headed toward the Dec. 5 showdown with Texas and is not about to be derailed by the Owls.

ARKANSAS 28, RICE 7.

Arkansas State University wrapped up at least a share of the Southland Conference title last week with a 69-7 thrashing of Lamar Tech.

This week, the Indians step out of the conference to take on the University of North Dakota. North Dakota is 5-2-1, losing only to second-ranked Montana and third-ranked North Dakota State.

The Indians, who continue to top the college division poll, have another opportunity to impress the pollsters.

ASU 24, NORTH DAKOTA 10. Arkansas Tech and Ouachita meet at Arkadelphia Saturday in the AIC's Showdown of the Week.

Tech is unbeaten in conference play and Ouachita has lost once in the AIC.

Ouachita's offense features the running of Johnny Baker, who has piled up some impressive statistics. Tech took care of Southern State last week and should handle the Tigers.

ARK. TECH 21, OUACHITA 17.

Last week's percentage was .857. Here are some other predictions involving college teams in Arkansas.

Buyer's Bill of Rights Proposal Dim

By G. DAVID WALLACE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — One year after President Nixon announced his "Buyer's Bill of Rights," hopes for his legislative proposals are dim and implementation of his administrative proposals is spotty.

The legislative proposals are stalled in a struggle between the administration and Congress. They were passed over in the pre-election session and action is unlikely in the upcoming lame duck session.

"We don't have the pressure point we had before," said Erma Angevine, executive director of the Consumer Federation of America. "Before the election I thought we had enough pressure. Consumers wanted to know how their representatives voted..."

Lame duck sessions historically are unproductive, but Mrs. Angevine said: "We're hopeful. We're not giving up. If we don't get them this year, we'll try again next year."

The major piece of consumer legislation would permit class action suits by groups of citizens—suits which would be thrown out individually as too small.

One consumer spokesman, asked for his assessment on this bill's prospects, replied:

"Very difficult. Really, really in trouble."

Added an industry lobbyist opposing the bill: "Right at the moment I don't think it will pass."

Of the 18 proposals Nixon counts in his consumer program, 11 were covered in legislation he sent to Congress in the five months after outlining his "Buyer's Bill of Rights" in October 1969.

Of the seven requiring executive actions, the administration has failed to keep its promise yet in two areas. The Office of Economic Opportunity never set up a consumer affairs division "to help focus and improve its already extensive consumer activities for poorer Americans."

The consumer register would reduce to plain English the actions—like setting standards for hamburger patties—chronicled in governmentalese in the official Federal Register. Mrs. Knauer's spokesmen say the project has been stalled by delay in approving her office's budget, which contains additional funds.

OEO spokesmen say agency officials decided consumer programs could be run better without setting up the division promised by Nixon.

Teaches That Reason Better Than Force

NEW YORK (AP) — Terry Sanford, president of Duke University and a former governor of North Carolina, says "there is much good news on campuses these days" and that his school is one of many teaching reason instead of force as a way to solve problems.

In an informal speech Thursday to 125 Duke alumni from metropolitan New York, Sanford said he was "afraid the noise of the bad news in the press was drowning out the good news" to be found in the nation's colleges.

Bank Hearing Briefs Ordered

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Attorneys for both sides agreed Thursday to submit briefs to state Bank Commissioner H. A. Adams on the request of the Mercantile Bank of Jonesboro to open a teller facility at Bono.

The First National Bank of Jonesboro has opposed the application. First National, a national bank, earlier had received permission from the comptroller of the currency to open a teller facility at Bono.

The Mercantile Bank made its request to Adams since it is a state bank. Adams said he would make a decision within 10 days after receiving the briefs.

Panel Says LBJ Ignored Military Plans

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A panel of high-ranking officers says the Johnson administration sometimes put politics first in Vietnam policy and ignored military contingency plans by not calling the reserves.

"Political, economic and social considerations in South Vietnam and in the United States led to extraordinary controls at the Washington level and to tight limitations on many specific resources, incremental funding, and the requirement for detailed approval of personnel ceilings and manning levels at times down to the unit level," the Joint Logistics Review Board said in a three-volume report made public Thursday.

"These controls and limitations had a major impact on logistic support in times of emergencies and surges in combat operations, and had an destabilizing effect on long-term programs."

Although the board concerned itself mainly with logistics problems, it also was critical of the Johnson administration's decision to follow the system of resettlement used by the British in Malaya in the early 1950's.

"It was generally considered that if the successful British strategy could be emulated, the American effort could be limited and logistic support significantly reduced," the board said.

However, the panel said, in Vietnam, the United States was limited to a supporting and advisory role while the British in Malaya exercised governmental control.

The panel was headed by General Frank S. Besson, who was appointed last year by Deputy Secretary of Defense David M. Packard. Besson retired from the Army in September.

Constitution Defeat Blamed on Outright Lies, County Officials

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Robert W. Meriwether was "disappointed but not surprised" at the failure of the proposed constitution of 1970 in Tuesday's general election.

Meriwether had predicted the document's defeat a couple of days prior to the election in a class he teaches at Hendrix college.

An associate professor of political science at Hendrix, Meriwether was a prominent delegate to the Constitutional Convention that drafted the charter, and served as executive director of Arkansas for the Constitution of 1970.

He estimated he made some 75 speeches in favor of the constitution since the convention adjourned nine months ago.

"Although it did fail, it might have alerted the people to the need for revision," he said.

Although pessimistic about any renewed effort to overhaul the present Constitution within the next several years, Meriwether said, "I would guess that the legislature will submit three amendments in their next session. I wouldn't venture to say what they might be."

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A medical researcher predicts large numbers of young people will soon require long-term care for a frequently fatal disease caused by heavy use of a drug known to its addicts as "meth" or "speed."

The disease, for which no effective cure is known, causes inflammation of the arteries and leads to failure of major organs such as the liver, kidneys, pancreas and small intestines.

It is attributed to the effects of methamphetamine, or a combination of that and other drugs. "We are going to have to change our attitudes towards drug addicts from one of acute care, for such things as the overdose, to long-term care," Dr. B. Phillip Citron told newsmen Thursday. He is a member of the eight-man Los Angeles

Big Drive to Destroy Enemy Bases

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Six thousand South Vietnamese troops advanced across a wide front in southeastern Cambodia today in a major new land, river and air operation.

Military spokesmen said no significant contact was reported in the first hours of the biggest drive in Cambodia since U.S. and South Vietnamese forces crossed the border last May.

A spokesman said the operation had three objectives:

1. To choke off the infiltration of North Vietnamese troops and supplies into South Vietnam's western Mekong Delta.

2. To destroy North Vietnamese bases rebuilt along the border since the allied drives last summer.

3. To ease the pressure on Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital. Informed sources said some of the South Vietnamese forces probably would advance as far as Takeo, 40 miles south of Phnom Penh.

The drive was spread along about 100 miles of the Cambodian-Vietnamese border, down to the Seven Mountains region of the western delta. Informed sources said the North Vietnamese had increased their infiltration in this sector.

interview he favored the four-year gubernatorial term, a feature of the proposed constitution. Meriwether speculated this might be one of the first amendments to be suggested to the legislature.

Meriwether sees little hope for revision of the tax structure, explaining Arkansas voters are too highly suspicious of such change.

Meriwether cited four main reasons for the failure of the document:

—County officials opposed its adoption because "they thought it threatened their little empires."

—Some people had honest differences with the political philosophy expressed in the proposed document. Meriwether said it would have given more authority to local governments.

—There was widespread voter fear and voter apathy concerning the constitution.

—Its opponents spread a great number of "stretched truths, half-truths and outright lies" that were believed by voters.

"In a democracy," Meriwether said, "the people get the kind of government they deserve. I think the people of Arkansas voted against having effective state and local government. I just hope they know what they were doing."

Southern Democrats Keep Power

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern Democrats—most of them conservatives—will continue to head nearly all the major Senate committees when the 92nd Congress convenes in January. These include Appropriations, Foreign Relations, Finance, Armed Services and Banking and Currency.

Sen. Harrison A. Williams Jr., D-N.J., will take over as chairman of the Labor and Public Welfare Committee—the only major Senate panel to change leadership as a result of this year's elections.

Williams succeeds another liberal, Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., defeated in the Democratic primary by Lloyd Bentsen, who then won the seat.

The Labor and Public Welfare Committee handles legislation in the fields of education, poverty, health and labor. Former President Lyndon B. Johnson said it originated more than 75 per cent of all his Great Society measures.

Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W.Va., outranks Williams in seniority on Labor and Public Welfare and could have taken the chairmanship.

But Randolph said he decided to remain chairman of the Public Works Committee because of its great importance to his home state.

Public works handles the Appalachia program, which has funneled millions of federal dollars into the region, as well as bills dealing with federal highway aid, air and water pollution controls, and river, harbor and flood-control projects.

Southerners will continue to chair nine of the present 16 Senate standing committees.

They include Sens. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., the oldest senator in point of service, who heads Appropriations; James O. Eastland, D-Miss., Judiciary; John C. Stennis, D-Miss., Armed Services; Russell B. Long, D-La., Finance, and J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., Foreign Relations.

Others are Sens. John Sparkman, D-Ala., Banking and Currency; Allen J. Ellender, D-La., Agriculture and Forestry; John L. McClellan, D-Ark., Government Operations, and Everett Jordan, D-N.C., Rules and Administration.

Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., chairman of the District of Columbia Committee, was defeated Tuesday. He is expected to be succeeded by Sen. Thomas F. Eagleton, D-Mo.

Fair and Cool Temperatures to Continue

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The forecast for Arkansas calls for fair skies, cool nights and slightly warmer daytime temperatures.

No rainfall is forecast through Saturday. However, there is a chance that a cold front entering the Northern Plain States from Canada will cause some showers late Sunday.

The highs Thursday ranged from 66 at Little Rock to 59 at Harrison.

Overnight lows were Fayetteville, 29; Harrison, 43; Jonesboro, 36; Pine Bluff, 37; Texarkana, 39; El Dorado, 33; Memphis, 36; Little Rock, 35 and Fort Smith, 31.

No precipitation was recorded during the 24-hour period ending at 6:30 a.m. today.

Uneasy Calm Prevails Along Suez

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Uneasy calm prevailed along the Suez Canal today as Egypt, Israel and Jordan extended their 90-day cease-fire. But Cairo declared it will not agree to another extension "under any circumstances."

The semiofficial newspaper Al Ahram said Egypt had accepted a 90-day extension of the truce "at the wish of the international community" but that any further extension would "serve Israel's goal in turning it into a permanent cease-fire."

Israeli Premier Golda Meir told a British television interviewer: "We hope that the longer the cease-fire lasts, the more difficult it will become for the Egyptians to begin shooting again."

"As far as Israel is concerned," said Deputy Premier Yigal Alon, "the cease-fire will continue as long as Egypt avoids taking military steps against us."

Jordan had announced earlier that it would continue to observe a cease-fire as long as its forces were not attacked.

Egyptian and Israeli forces along the Suez Canal were on the alert, but their guns remained quiet.

A military spokesman in Tel Aviv said Israeli troops had noted no unusual activity on the Egyptian side of the canal and were "sleeping much more comfortably than in the past."

Traffic Heavy in Air on Ho Chi Trail

By RICHARD PYLE
Associated Press Writer
ABOARD USS SHANGRI-LA (AP) — So many American planes are bombing the Ho Chi Minh trail in southern Laos that military officials have established traffic patterns similar to those in use at major American airports.

They have set fixed altitudes at which the Air Force fighter-bombers based in Thailand and South Vietnam and the Navy aircraft from carriers in the Gulf of Tonkin fly to and from the target area.

With the dry season beginning and the North Vietnamese pushing men and supplies southward into Cambodia and South Vietnam, the Laotian panhandle has become the focal point of the war in Indochina—and air activity there has escalated as well.

Poppies to Be Distributed on Saturday

The Annual Poppy Day Distribution by Volunteer Members of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Saturday, November 7th in the Hope Area to aid disabled war veterans and their families.

All contributions are used to carry on the organizations extensive program of rehabilitation and child welfare work, and the aid to widows and orphan children of veterans.

The poppies are made by disabled Veterans in all the Veterans administration hospitals of the state, under supervision of Auxiliary members who assist in the occupational therapy program.

Miss Floyce Taylor, poppy chairman of Leslie Huddleston Unit 12 will be in charge of the Poppy Day sales in downtown Hope.

Rockefeller, Bumpers Make Administration Transition Plans

By JERRY T. BAULCH
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — When the counting is finished it's almost certain to show more Americans went to the polls Tuesday than in any off-year election, but—as usual—not anywhere near that of a presidential year.

With scattered precincts yet to be counted and thousands of absentee ballots to be tabulated, an Associated Press survey shows an unofficial total of 56,146,618 tallied so far.

That's near the final 56,827,994 total of 1966 and well over the 53,510,425 in 1962. The 1960 presidential vote was 68,883,341 and the 1968 total was 73,359,968.

The voting-age population has grown from 106 million in 1960 to an estimated 124 million this year and the turnout pattern has remained about the same.

Republican National Committee researchers had figured 49 per cent of the 124 million would vote this year, the same percentage as in 1966 and 1962. That would be 60 million votes.

The presidential vote turnout was 63.2 per cent in 1960, 62 per cent in 1964 and 61.1 in 1968.

Getting an accurate voter turnout picture is more complicated in off-year elections than in a presidential year. It can be done only by taking the vote for all candidates in a statewide race such as governor or U.S. senator or adding the totals for all U.S. House seats in the state.

But while most voters cast their ballot for president many may skip balloting for senator, governor or congressmen in off-year elections. So they're lost in the calculation.

The 1966 vote already has been surpassed in most of the states where there were key battles for Senate seats, notably Florida, Texas, Tennessee, Ohio and Michigan. In Tennessee, where there were hot Senate and gubernatorial races, the 1,101,476 counted for governor was a record turnout for a non-presidential year.

But in some states with big election battles—California, New York and Illinois—the 1966 totals have not been reached, but they had big contests that year too.

Jobless Rate Edges Up Slightly

By NEIL GILBRIDE
Ap Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment rate edged up last month and manufacturing jobs dropped, largely because of the auto workers strike against General Motors, the Labor Department reported today.

The national jobless rate edged up one-tenth of one per cent to 5.6 per cent of the work force, the report said. The total number of jobless was virtually unchanged at 4.3 million.

The 5.6 per cent figure compared with the 6 per cent unemployment rate that House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., said last Monday had been reached. McCormack said at the time that the Nixon administration was withholding the 6 per cent announcement until after Tuesday's election. Labor Department officials denied it, saying the figures were not then compiled.

Today's official report said that although total employment, including agricultural workers, was up to some 660,000 to 78.9 million, the key category of pay-

Moon Landing Was Best TV Show Seen

DURHAM, N.H. (AP) — Dr. James Van Allen, who discovered the Van Allen radiation belt which circles the earth, says the Apollo 11 moon landing "was the best television show that I have ever seen" but that the presence of men on the moon is unessential for a scientific mission.

Van Allen said the United States should phase out its manned space programs because "the maintenance of men in a spacecraft increases the cost of a given mission enormously and risks human life unnecessarily."

Van Allen delivered the first of the Spaulding Distinguished Series of Lectures Thursday at the University of New Hampshire.

Italy Gives Recognition to Red China

By HILMI TOROS
Associated Press Writer
ROME (AP) — Italy, the Mediterranean anchor of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, recognized Communist China today.

The defection of another U.S. ally from the anti-Peking camp was announced after a meeting of the Italian Cabinet at which it ratified the agreement negotiators for the Italian and Chinese governments concluded in Paris Thursday after 21 months of arduous give and take.

Nationalist Chinese diplomats in Rome and Milan were packing to leave for Formosa. Officials in Taipei said the Nationalist government in Formosa would be closed and the staff withdrawn within two weeks.

The break was not expected to affect relations between the Vatican and President Chiang Kai-shek's regime. The Nationalists maintain as ambassador to the Holy See, and a papal pronuncio is assigned to Formosa.

The shift also is not expected to affect Formosa's small trade with Italy, consisting largely of motorcycles and small electronic parts. The Nationalists still maintain trade relations with Canada despite Ottawa's recognition of the Chinese Communist government on Oct. 13.

Italy is the seventh member of the 15-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization to come to terms with Peking. The others are Britain, France, Canada, the Netherlands, Norway and Denmark.

Government sources said the recognition could have come several months earlier had it not been for the uncertain political situation in Italy. Italy changed governments four times while the negotiations were going on.

As in the negotiations prior to affect Formosa's small trade with Italy, consisting largely of motorcycles and small electronic parts. The Nationalists still maintain trade relations with Canada despite Ottawa's recognition of the Chinese Communist government on Oct. 13.

The Italian and Canadian governments consulted frequently while the Ottawa government was carrying on parallel talks with Peking in Stockholm, and the sources said Italian diplomats were the authors of the formula by which Canada "took note" of the claim to Formosa without endorsing or opposing it.

Socialist Vice Premier Francesco De Martino predicted that Italian recognition of Communist China would accelerate economic ties between the two countries and aid Italy's chronic balance of payments deficit with Peking. But a leader of the conservative Liberal party, Giovanni Malagodi, said the move was "new evidence of Italian weakness to Communist pressure."
